Melanie Russo (PT) vocal

Melanie is a great singer from Portugal. She has been part of various projects and performing on many stages. Thereby, she got to know a number of fabulous musicians who inspired her not only as a musician but also as a person. „That’s my journey, great and satisfying, and I’m happy to have found my way as singer, songwriter and composer. I am looking forward to continue to share the stage with excellent musicians. We will take you on an interesting musical journey, including Fado, Jazz, a lot of Groove and Soul.”

Malcolm Green (USA/CH) vocal

Malcolm Green, Singer, Saxophonist, Flutist and Percussionist started his musical career at the age of five, singing in the Riverview Baptist Church’s in Richmond, Virginia, Sunday school and young People’s Gospel choirs. At the age of nine Green started to play the saxophone in the marching, concert, jazz and rock bands at Randolph Junior High School and Huguenot High School. Wanting to have the knowledge of arranging, writing and improvising music, he continued on to Norfolk State University in Norfolk, Virginia and Howard University in Washington D.C. to study saxophone.

Playing in the Big Band at Howard University, he was sent to Europe with the musical “Raisin in the Sun“ and had the chance to perform in Switzerland, at St. Gallen’s City Theater and in France, at the Theater St. Martin in Paris. Green completed his degree in Switzerland, studying flute at the world renowned Conservatory for Music in Bern, which brought him back to the gospel, jazz and rock music. While playing in City’s Theater in Bern, Green was sent to Brussels, Antwerpen and Gent, Belgium, with the musical “West Side Story“.

With his first LP "Love Has Sides", produced in 1983 with Thomas Maurhofer in Bern, Switzerland, he won the Swiss Talent Festival. Green played in many different jazz groups with Markus Plattner, guitarist, and covered a wide range from Dixieland to Modern Jazz. With the Rock band 'Voice' he stormed through Switzerland with the release of the single “Bring it to an End“ (produced also with Thomas Maurhofer).

His style in Jazz and Rock music were unique and always stood and still stands out in a crowd. Malcolm Green is known by his distinctive singing, his grooving saxophone, his mellow flute and his explosive percussions throughout Switzerland, Germany, Austria, France and Italy, and he has established himself as one of the most asked for and respected musicians. His jazz recordings include CDs such as “As time goes by“, a live recording in duo with the world- known pianist Art Lande, "Sketches" and "Changes" with Urs. C. Eigenmann and percussionist Ferdinand Rauber (all of which can be brought in the iTunes Store). Working with Urs. C. Eigenmann, a well-known Swiss pianist, Green also brought about the LP “Umamaca“.

Going back to his gospel roots he recorded and co-produced with Urs Leuenberger the CD "That's why I sing", a live recording with the Gospel choir of Gossau, Switzerland. His latest CD, "Ready to go", recorded at the Gallus Recording Studio in St. Gallen, expresses Greens love of Cuban Jazz. This live studio recording with producer Mat Callahan and arranger and co- Composer Hector Ceravolo, an outstanding pianist from Buenos Aires, Argentina, show the many sides of this great singer, entertainer, and multi-instrumentalist (also available in the iTunes Store).

Malcolm Green and „The Green Experience“ is Green's next adventure into the past. With the title "Tuff Enuuff to do this Stuff", Green covered some of the most well-known hits. Gee-K on electric guitar and voice, Hector Ceravolo, synth-bass and keyboards, and Andy Leumann on drums, were the perfect trio for this concert. Recorded live at Gambrinus in St.Gallen by Eddy Sloof (Sloof Productions), mixed and mastered at Farewell Studios, St.Gallen, Switzerland. The production is an in artificial piece of music, without any cosmetic and tampering with high tech. Green has picked the right team to take you on a trip that you won't forget. Songs like „Satisfaction“, „Hound Dog“, „Blue Suede Shoes“ or „No Woman, No Cry“ will rock you anytime - grooving at home, in your car or with your music-device. The Green Experience is really tuff enuuff to do this stuff.

teaches guitar and choral singing as a diploma music teacher in the region of St.Gallen. He is trained at the Jazz Scool St.Gallen. It plays with the well-known band "Red Cube" and in other various other groups, as well as with Simon Johnson's "Bluesonix" and as a studio musician.

Urs C. Eigenmann (CH) keys

Urs is mainly a self-taught musician. However, he did study at the Jass Scool Graz (A) and Bern (CH). In 1967, he established the Urs Carl Eigenmann-Trio, a true Blues band. Shortly after, in 1968, he formed the legendary band off&out. With this band, Urs played many concerts, among others, several times at the Jazzfestival Zürich. In addition, Urs formed the band Umamaca with which he performed at the Open Air St. Gallen, in 1985. Urs has also been a successful composer. Two of his major works include the commissioned work Open Opera (1993), as well as the total work of art Alli Zäme (1998). In 2008, he initiated the international festival Jazzin which he has been organizing regularly.„The list of musicians who were part of off&out is long and impressive. And by the way, but not to forget: Urs C. Eigenmann made real Swiss Jazz history. It cannot be another 50 years, but as long as this „fellow“ exists, we can expect a lot more of off&out – and we are looking forward to it!“, wrote the journalist Richard Butz.
